A chart depicting our sales figures by countries. Naturally the USA ranks first, that was expected. What is interesting however is the fact that we have sold a lot more in Australia than Canada, a country so close to us. In fact, Canada ranks last in terms of sales. We need to focus on that. Our sales in Europe seem pretty identical to each other.

Since the US is our home turf, I feel like it is important for us to dive deeper into the sales figures of the country. It is abundantly clear that our turf is the west coast. California being the leading state, followed..

A c h a. .	Since the US is our home turf, I feel like it is important for us to dive deeper into the sales figures of the country. It is abundantly clear that our turf is the west coast. California being the leading state, followed by Washington and Oregon.	As far as categories are concerned, there is no competetion. We are Bike Haven and we sell bikes the most. Quite unsurprising. As far as the other categories are concerned, we accessories are followed by clothing. Very surprising to note that we have not sold any components at all. Serious attention needs to be directed towards that category.
